

SMALL VALLEY VINEYARD

2016 Pinot Gris

Summary:

Gumeracha was known by the Peramangk people as “Umeracha” meaning watering place. Our vineyards sit in the beautiful Torrens Valley 36km northeast of Adelaide. The sheltered vines trail into an intimate valley where a central teardrop pond takes the sky. The valley feels sacred and alive with greens and golds, a perfect place to create something beautiful. This along with and being 360m above sea level and an average rain fall of 756mm lends its self to the cooler wine varieties and wine styles. Sandy loam over shale with overlaying clay and sandstone. Help make up such a diverse site.
